

Called to Lead?

Questions I Didn't Even Know to Ask

Preparation for the call

God's timing of the call

Accepting the call

Responsibility of the call

When we model and teach women how to distinctively glorify God, we do a great service to both the church and the Name of Christ.

1. What characterizes a woman's ministry leader called by God?

God is more concerned about us increasing in knowledge, love, and submission to Him than He is about the programs we start and the numbers of women we draw. More than focusing on ministry goals, He wants us to fix our gaze on Him.

A.

B.

C.

D.

E.

F.

2. What are some of the challenges we face in women's ministry today?

3. How do we influence our pastors while respecting and submitting to their leadership?

4. What are the key elements of a women's ministry that strive to help women learn how to distinctively glorify God as He designed us to?

5. How do we determine the work God has prepared for us to do as a leader and how do we know what to delegate?

6. What temptations must we guard against?

7. Where do we begin? Seven P's

P _____

P _____

P _____

P _____

P _____

P _____

P _____

8. What are some practical initiatives that support a Titus 2 gospel-centered vision?

9. Where do we go when we want to quit?

Fight the Battle: Rebuilding the Wall of Biblical Womanhood—Nehemiah 4

Our Gospel Calling

Continue steadfastly in prayer, being watchful in it with thanksgiving. We are servants of Jesus Christ, always struggling on behalf of our (women) in our prayers that they may stand mature and fully assured in all the will of God . . . and that we fulfill the ministry that we have received in the Lord. (Colossians 4: 2, 12, 17)