

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

What in the World Do You Want?

by Crawford Loritts

1. Which of the top five issues from the church survey can you most relate to?
2. Have you ever looked to something in the world to provide fulfillment for your life? What was it?
3. What gives you true pleasure and joy? If your answer indicates that you're subconsciously worshiping something other than God, what do you need to do to change that?
4. How is God calling you to make a difference to unbelievers around you?
5. How is worldliness a celebration of self?
6. How can you guard your heart against the things of this world?
7. Do you have anything in your life that causes you to lose the enjoyment of the Father's love or your desire to do the Father's will?
8. Are your heart and life clean? If not, how can you get rid of the world's junk from your life?