

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

For Such a Time as This

by Nancy Leigh DeMoss (True Woman '08)

1. What are the two ways of looking at life, according to Nancy?
2. How does the fact that you're not the star of the drama—but still an important player—affect the way you think about and live your life?
3. What privileges, opportunities, and places in the human kingdom has God given you to further His heavenly kingdom at this time?
4. How did Esther act in community rather than acting alone? On a scale of 1 to 10, how involved are you in community? What steps can you take this week to get more involved?
5. How do we know that Esther was willing to go for broke—to lay everything on the line in order to fulfill God's purposes for her life?
6. How is Esther's example a foreshadowing of Jesus?
7. Have you ever gone for broke for Jesus? How can you do this right where you are?
8. Nancy reminded us that we're in a spiritual battle. What are the world's greatest weapons, and what are ours?
9. In what ways are you tempted to get your way by pushing, nagging, screaming, yelling, badgering, manipulating, whining, or shaming? How can you respond differently in a way that would win victory in God's kingdom for your particular situation?
10. What can you do when you experience feelings of weakness, inadequacy, and fear?
