

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

What Is a True Woman?

by Nancy Leigh DeMoss (True Woman '10)

1. How has the gospel changed your life?
2. What is sound doctrine, and why is it important?
3. How can Christians actually living what they claim to believe have a more profound affect on culture than programs or laws or government?
4. Why do you think the qualities listed in Titus 2 are important in discipling younger women?
5. Which characteristic of a true woman do you feel God pressing you for growth?
6. Why is it important for character to precede calling?
7. How can our lives as women be adorned with the gospel of Christ?
8. How can we become true women of God?
9. Why does being a true woman really matter?
10. How do you think living as a true woman would impact those around you now and after your life is over?