

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

God's Jewels

by Joni Eareckson Tada (True Woman '08)

1. How do we become jewels that glitter and really shine?
2. "Trouble is the textbook that will teach you who you really are." What is your natural reaction when you're in pain? When you're "squeezed," what comes out?
3. Why is it so important for God to scour away our impurities?
4. Do you feel as though someone's taking a gigantic toothbrush and scrubbing your soul raw today? In what area are you bemoaning the fact that "Things are never going to be the same"?
5. How can we change? What is Joni's recommended two-step solution to your pain?
6. What did you find most encouraging from this message?