

LISTENER GUIDE

A True Woman Joins the Battle

by Nancy Leigh DeMoss (True Woman '10)

Judges chapter 4

I. The Cycle God Breaks

1. Disobedience (Judg. 2:12)
 - They _____ the Lord.
 - They went after other gods.
2. Discipline (Judg. 4:2)
 - Social, political, economic upheaval & distress
 - A lack of strong _____ leadership
3. Desperation (Judg. 4:3)
 - The people cried out to the Lord for help.
4. Deliverance (Judg. 4:4)
 - The Lord used a faithful woman to bring deliverance.

II. The Woman God Uses

Deborah's Calling:

1. Prophetess: She warned and encouraged people based on God's Word.
2. Wife: She served without neglecting the home front.
3. Judge: She knew how to give counsel and wisdom because she knew how a to listen to His _____.

Her Attitude:

1. She was ready and available.
2. She believed God.
3. She heard from God—She knew how to listen to His Word.
4. She obeyed—she conveyed God’s message.
5. She “AROSE”—she was willing to step into the fray.
 - God uses human instruments to fulfill His Kingdom _____.
 - God sometimes uses unconventional means to defeat the enemy.
 - God chooses and uses _____ vessels.
6. She honored her feminine nature and calling.

She arose as a _____ in Israel.
“At the heart of mature femininity is a freeing disposition to affirm, receive and nurture strength and leadership from worthy men in ways appropriate to a woman’s differing relationships.”
7. She used her power of influence to affirm God’s divine design.

“The legacy of Deborah’s life is that through her encouragement and influence, the men of her day became MEN.”
8. She had faith in the ways and promises of God.

III. The Victory God Wins

1. The battle is the Lord’s.
 - God uses human means to win it.
 - God uses supernatural means to win it.
2. Some refuse to join in.
 - The willing _____ were commended and blessed.
 - God’s kingdom purposes will be fulfilled with or without us.

3. God wants women to get involved.

- Another woman, Jael, played a major part in the victory.
- Why not you?

What mark will your life have on this generation and on those who are coming behind us?

A community is not likely to be overthrown where a woman fulfills her mission.
Will the world be changed by the power of your noble heart?

LISTENER GUIDE ANSWER KEY

A True Woman Joins the Battle

by Nancy Leigh DeMoss (True Woman '10)

Judges chapter 4

I. The Cycle God Breaks

1. Disobedience (Judg. 2:12)
 - They _____ disobeyed _____ the Lord.
 - They went after other gods.
2. Discipline (Judg. 4:2)
 - Social, political, economic upheaval & distress
 - A lack of strong ___male___ leadership
3. Desperation (Judg. 4:3)
 - The people cried out to the Lord for help.
4. Deliverance (Judg. 4:4)
 - The Lord used a faithful woman to bring deliverance.

II. The Woman God Uses

Deborah's Calling:

1. Prophetess: She warned and encouraged people based on God's Word.
2. Wife: She served without neglecting the home front.
3. Judge: She knew how to give counsel and wisdom because she knew how a to listen to His _____ voice _____.

Her Attitude:

1. She was ready and available.
2. She believed God.
3. She heard from God—She knew how to listen to His Word.
4. She obeyed—she conveyed God’s message.
5. She “AROSE”—she was willing to step into the fray.
 - God uses human instruments to fulfill His Kingdom purposes.
 - God sometimes uses unconventional means to defeat the enemy.
 - God chooses and uses willing vessels.
6. She honored her feminine nature and calling.
 - She arose as a mother in Israel.
 - “At the heart of mature femininity is a freeing disposition to affirm, receive and nurture strength and leadership from worthy men in ways appropriate to a woman’s differing relationships.”
7. She used her power of influence to affirm God’s divine design.
 - “The legacy of Deborah’s life is that through her encouragement and influence, the men of her day became MEN.”
8. She had faith in the ways and promises of God.

III. The Victory God Wins

1. The battle is the Lord’s.
 - God uses human means to win it.
 - God uses supernatural means to win it.
2. Some refuse to join in.
 - The willing volunteers were commended and blessed.
 - God’s kingdom purposes will be fulfilled with or without us.

3. God wants women to get involved.

- Another woman, Jael, played a major part in the victory.
- Why not you?

What mark will your life have on this generation and on those who are coming behind us?

A community is not likely to be overthrown where a woman fulfills her mission.
Will the world be changed by the power of your noble heart?