LISTENER GUIDE

From Him, Through Him, To Him

by Nancy Leigh DeMoss (True Woman '08)

Text: Romans 11:33-36 This passage is foundational to what it means to be a true woman of God.

First eleven chapters of Romans lay out the basic doctrines of our faith. The last | five chapters are practical application of everything that has just preceded and asks, how are we to live in light of all that we've just seen? Romans 11:33–36 a bridge between these two sections. |

|---|
| "Oh, the depth of the wisdom and knowledge of God." (v. 33) God has complete and He knows everything about everything—the world, history, the future, your life. |
| "How unsearchable are His judgments and how inscrutable His ways." (v. 33) |
| No human being can fathom the and the of God. |
| In every situation, in every circumstance in your life, in every situation, God is always doing a thousand different things that you cannot see and you do not know. —Dr. John Piper |
| "For who has known the mind of the Lord, or who has been his counselor" Or who has given a gift to him that he might be repaid?" (v. 34–35) These are questions—the answer is no one. God needs nothing and no one. He's He doesn't need anything outside of Himself. |
| "For from Him and through Him and to Him are all things." (v. 36) This is the heart of the matter It's a call for a God-centered life and perspective. If you don't have that, you will be set adrift on a sea of shifting emotions |
| and wild ways of thinking. To or to your circumstances is ultimately to resent and resist God Himself. |

"To Him be glory forever. Amen." (v. 36)

The response is, we put God in the spotlight where He belongs. We praise Him and give Him glory. We submit our lives to God's holy, eternal purposes.

| What does this have to do with being a true woman? |
|--|
| A true woman lives a life. She lives for His glory and His pleasure and not her own. She can embrace the purpose for which she was created. It means having a God-centered perspective. |
| 2) A true woman God. She accepts God's plan, His design, His will, and His ways as good. She depends on God in times of prosperity and joy, with gratitude, but also with gratitude and trust in times of pain, hardship, loneliness, uncertainty, and confusion. She exercises faith. She believes that in His way, and in His time, His promises will be fulfilled. |
| She trusts that her past failures are not beyond the reach of God's re- deeming grace. |
| She doesn't have to strive or be afraid. She can relinquish control. |
| 3) A true woman says, "Yes, Lord." She recognizes that her life is not her own. She lives for the glory of God She lives She's willing to make personal sacrifices for the sake of the glory of God To say, "Yes, Lord," means to say, "No," to: bitterness self-centeredness whining complaining pining resisting, resenting, and running from the will of God. |
| But it means to say, "Yes," to |

- forgiving those who have sinned against us
- · receiving God's forgiveness
- · repentance
- · serving
- · embracing God's choices for our lives
- trusting Him with our circumstances
- · finding and fulfilling God's purposes for our lives.

LISTENER GUIDE ANSWER KEY

From Him, Through Him, To Him

by Nancy Leigh DeMoss (True Woman '08)

Text: Romans 11:33-36

This passage is foundational to what it means to be a true woman of God.

First eleven chapters of Romans lay out the basic doctrines of our faith. The last five chapters are practical application of everything that has just preceded and asks, how are we to live in light of all that we've just seen? Romans 11:33–36 is a bridge between these two sections.

"Oh, the depth of the wisdom and knowledge of God." (v. 33)

God has complete wisdom and knowledge. He knows everything about everything—the world, history, the future, your life.

"How unsearchable are His judgments and how inscrutable His ways." (v. 33)

No human being can fathom the judgments and the ways of God.

In every situation, in every circumstance in your life, in every situation, God is always doing a thousand different things that you cannot see and you do not know. —Dr. John Piper

"For who has known the mind of the Lord, or who has been his counselor?

Or who has given a gift to him that he might be repaid?" (v. 34–35)

These are rhetorical questions—the answer is no one.

God needs nothing and no one. He's complete. He doesn't need anything outside of Himself.

"For from Him and through Him and to Him are all things." (v. 36)

This is the heart of the matter

- It's a call for a God-centered life and perspective.
- If you don't have that, you will be set adrift on a sea of shifting emotions and wild ways of thinking.
- To resist or to resent your circumstances is ultimately to resent and resist God Himself.

"To Him be glory forever. Amen." (v. 36)

The response is, we put God in the spotlight where He belongs. We praise Him and give Him glory. We submit our lives to God's holy, eternal purposes.

What does this have to do with being a true woman?

1) A true woman lives a God-centered life.

- · She lives for His glory and His pleasure and not her own.
- · She can embrace the purpose for which she was created.
- · It means having a God-centered perspective.

2) A true woman trusts God.

- · She accepts God's plan, His design, His will, and His ways as good.
- She depends on God in times of prosperity and joy, with gratitude, but also with gratitude and trust in times of pain, hardship, loneliness, uncertainty, and confusion.
- She exercises faith. She believes that in His way, and in His time, His promises will be fulfilled.
- She trusts that her past failures are not beyond the reach of God's redeeming grace.
- She doesn't have to strive or be afraid. She can relinquish control.

3) A true woman says, "Yes, Lord."

- · She recognizes that her life is not her own. She lives for the glory of God.
- · She lives intentionally.
- · She's willing to make personal sacrifices for the sake of the glory of God.
- · To say, "Yes, Lord," means to say, "No," to:
 - · bitterness
 - · self-centeredness
 - · whining
 - · complaining
 - · pining
 - · resisting, resenting, and running from the will of God.
- But it means to say, "Yes," to
 - · forgiving those who have sinned against us
 - receiving God's forgiveness
 - · repentance
 - serving
 - embracing God's choices for our lives
 - trusting Him with our circumstances
 - finding and fulfilling God's purposes for our lives.

