Behold the Wonder of the Word—Psalm 119

Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth

1. How does your view of the Bible compare with the way Psalm 119 describes God's Word?
2. Do you view your time in God's Word as just something to check off your to-do list—or as a time of great blessing and joy? What might need to change in your heart in order to shift your perspective?
3. What blessings and benefits have you experienced from spending time in God's Word?
4. How do the stories of believers who treasure Scripture challenge your complacency? What would change if you treated your Bible as the treasure it truly is?
5. What competes most with Scripture for your attention, affection, and time?
6. Nancy said, "We become what we behold." How have you seen that be true in your life? What would beholding Christ more look like for you on a daily basis?
7. What glimpses of grace do you find in Psalm 119?
8. What tangible step can you take to cultivate a deeper hunger for God's Word?
